NEW LOOK, SAME VISION; NEW NAME, SAME PASSION

Washington, PA – April 6, 2017 – Over the past 26 years, our organization has recruited local people with disabilities to work as volunteers and staff to provide services in Washington, Fayette, and Greene Counties. The response of our community has been dynamic and successful. Now we are expanding our programs throughout Southwestern Pennsylvania, including the City of Pittsburgh.

This new vision requires a new name and emblem to represent our new ideas and new engagement with new communities.

We are Transitional Paths to Independent Living (TRPIL).

We have offices in Washington at our current location at 69 East Beau Street, as well as our brand-new location in Monroeville, 201 Penn Center Boulevard, Building 1, Suite 204. You can reach us at the same phone number (724.223.5115) to reach either office.

TRPIL advocates for the civil rights of people with disabilities and promotes independent living. We provide a wide range of services that assist people with disabilities in leading independent and productive lives. Last year, TRPIL served 1,680 people in Southwestern Pennsylvania.

For more information about TRPIL and its services, please call 724.223.5115 or visit our website at www.trpil.com.
