Come to Our August Business Meeting

by Brenda Dare

Thursday, August 8, 2016, is our next annual business meeting; it promises to be an eventful day, as always.

Transitional Paths to Independent Living is a member-run organization. The essence of consumer control is rooted in our membership. Our business meeting is where members make important decisions about our Center for Independent Living: shaping our priorities and the future direction of our advocacy efforts. There are also reports to the membership from staff and the board.

If you are a member who wants your voice heard, remember that we are strongest when we work together. Even if you haven't been here for awhile, we want to see and hear from you! Please RSVP to Matt Taylor at 724-223-5115 ext 1385 for the meeting.

We also extend an invitation for members to come and share their stories with us before the meeting. You can make independent living personal by telling others your story. If you want to come early for an informal breakfast before the meeting, RSVP to Brenda Dare at 724-223-5115 ext 1301. We'll share stories at breakfast at 9 AM, and get registered for the business meeting at 11 AM.

Make a day of it, and become – or continue to be! – a part of great new things to come in southwestern Pennsylvania's disability community.
